Apart from the exception mentioned in the previous paragraph a reference to an Act of Parliament includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force.

Liability of Members

3. The liability of the members is limited to a sum not exceeding £10, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the charity in the event of its being wound up while he, she or it is a member or within one year after he, she or it ceases to be a member, for.

(1) Payment of the charity's debts and liabilities incurred before he, she or it ceases to be a member,

- (2) Payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
- (3) Adjustment of the right of the contributories among themselves.

Objective

4. The charity's objects ("Objects") are specifically restricted to the following
 - (a) To promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of the UK, in particular but not exclusively, gay, bisexual, transsexual and transgender communities, without distinction of sex, sexual orientation, race, political, religious or other opinions, by associating together the residents of the area of benefit, the local and the public authorities, voluntary and other organisations in a common effort to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants.
 - (b) To promote equality and diversity and to eliminate discrimination in relation to gay, bisexual, transsexual and transgender persons by advancing education and raising awareness of issues affecting said persons.' Nothing in the articles shall authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and/or section 2 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008

Powers

5. The Charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so In particular, the charity has power;
 - (1) To raise funds. In doing so, the Charity must not undertake any taxable permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations,
 - (2) To buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use,
 - (3) To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity. In exercising this power, the Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 122 of the Charities Act 2011.
 - (4) To borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation The Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 124 - 126 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land,
 - (5) To co-operate with other Charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them,
 - (6) To establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects,
 - (7) To acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other Charity;
 - (8) To set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
 - (9) To employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity The Charity may employ or remunerate a Director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by article 7 and provided it complies with the conditions in that article,
 - (10) To
 - i. deposit or invest funds,
 - ii. employ a professional fund-manager, and
 - iii. arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee;

In the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the Trustees of a trust are permitted to do so by the Trustee Act 2000,

- (11) To provide indemnity insurance for the Directors in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011;

- (12) To pay out of the funds of the Charity the costs of forming and registering the Charity both as a company and as a Charity,

Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects,
- (2) a) A Director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.
b) A Director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expenses in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011
c) A Director may receive an indemnity from the Charity in the circumstances specified in Article 57
d) A Director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by Article 7.
- (3) Subject to Article 7, none of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Director receiving:
 - a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity,
 - b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity

Benefits and payments to Charity Directors and connected persons

7.

- (1) General Provisions

No Director or connected person may:

- a) buy any goods or services from the Charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Charity,
- c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from the Charity;
- d) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity;

Unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this article, or authorised by court or the Charity Commission. In this article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has monetary value.

Scope and powers permitting directors' / connected persons' benefits

- (a) Director or connected person may receive a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity
- (b) A Director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with and subject to the conditions in sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this article a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person
- (d) A Director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate)

- (e) A Director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the Director or connected person to the Charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the director concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public

Payment for supply of goods only – controls

- (3) The Charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2) (c) of this article if each of the following conditions is satisfied.
- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the directors or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question
- (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interest of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or ii with regards to the supply of goods to the charity
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remunerations or payment authorised by article 7

- (4) in sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this article

- (a) 'charity' includes any company in which the Charity
- Holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - Controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - Has the right to appoint one or more directors to the Board of the company,
- (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition in article 61 'Interpretation'

Declaration of directors' interests

8. A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussion of the directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalties

- (1) If a conflict of interest arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interest where the following conditions apply:
- (a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person,

(b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting, and
(c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interest of the charity to authorise the conflict of interest in the circumstances applying.

(2) In this article a conflict of interest arising because of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.

Members

10.

- (1) The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first members of the Charity
- (2) Membership is open to other individuals or organisations who.
 - a. apply to the Charity in the form required by the Directors,
 - b. are approved by the Directors
- (3) The Directors may only refuse an application for membership if,
 - a. acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the Charity to refuse the application.
 - b. The Directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision
 - c. The Directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision The Directors' decision following any written representation must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.
- (4) Membership is not transferable
- (5) The Directors must keep a register of names and addresses of members

Classes of membership

11.

- (1) The Directors may establish classes of membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members
- (2) The Directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership.
- (3) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if:
 - a. three-quarters of the membership of that class consent in writing to the variation, or
 - b. a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation
- (4) The provisions in these articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of members.

Termination of membership

12. Membership is terminated if:

- (1) the member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist,
- (2) the member resigns by written notice to the Charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members;
- (3) any sum due from the member to the Charity for subscriptions is not paid in full within six months of it falling due;

(4) the member is removed from membership by

- a. Outcome or conclusion addressed under a membership behaviour or code of conduct policy, defined under provision of Article 49 Byelaws. Removal of membership will only occur if:
 - i. Actions taken are in accordance as such the defined by relevant Byelaws.
 - ii. Member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the outcome and given the right to appeal.
- b. a resolution of the Directors that it is in the best interest of the Charity that his or her membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:
 - i. the member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;
 - ii. the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the Charity) has been allowed to make representation to the meeting.

General meetings

- (1) The Charity must hold its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after the date of its incorporation.
- (2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

14. The directors may call a general meeting at any time

Notice of general meetings

- (1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Charity are:
 - Twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution,
 - Fourteen clear days for all other general meetings.
- (2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights.
- (3) The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. It will contain instruction of how members wishing to engage remotely can participate. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 22.
- (4) The notice must be given to all the members, to the Directors and auditors

16. The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Charity.

Proceedings at general meetings

17.

- (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (2) A quorum is:

- 100 members entitled to vote upon the business conducted at the meeting; or
- 10 percent of the total membership at the time whichever is the lesser.

(3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum

(4) Quorum is defined as members entitled to vote at general meetings, who are:

- a. Present within the appointed meeting location time within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting to begin.
- b. Present via communications that have been pre-defined as part of the Notice of general meeting. Attendance via communication will require verification of membership status before individuals count towards quorum. These individuals are referred to as 'members attending remotely'.

(1) If:

- a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or
- b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;

the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the Directors shall determine.

(2) The Directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

(3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

(1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors.

(2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a Director nominated by the Directors shall chair the meeting.

(3) If there is only one Director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

(4) If no Director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

(1) The members present in person, remotely or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.

(2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.

(3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.

(4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

- (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands, alongside confirmation of votes cast by members attending remotely and proxy votes, unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded
 - (a) by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - (b) by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all members having the right to vote at the meeting
- (2)
 - a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded
 - b) The results of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the Charity but the number or proportion of the vote cast need not be recorded
- (3)
 - a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting
 - b) If the demand for the poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- (4)
 - a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix and place for declaring the result of the poll.
 - b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- (5)
 - a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
 - b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.
 - c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded
 - d) If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken
 - e) If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

Content of proxy notices

- (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
 - (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
 - (d) is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- (2) The charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
 - a. Whereas a Proxy is to be delivered in the forms of written communication, it can only be taken as valid as received by the Chair, Returning Officer, their nominee or at the stated receiver, no later than 48 hours prior to the stated meeting start time of the general meeting.

- (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as -
 - (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolution put to the meeting, and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself
- (5) Proxy votes will be deemed invalid on the passing of any amendments of written or special resolutions via a vote of members attending the general meeting in person or remotely.
- (6) The Chair will ensure that members who submit proxy votes are informed within 15 working days to the outcome of any written or special resolution if their proxy votes are made invalid due to amendments of any written or special resolution.

Delivery of proxy notices

22. A.

- (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.
- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- (4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointer's behalf.

Written resolutions

- (1) A resolution in writing agreed will pass by a vote with the majority of the following types of resolutions:
 - a. 'General resolution' will require a simple majority (50% +1) of votes cast.
 - b. In the case of a special resolution, to amend the Articles of Association, excluding provisions covered by clause 23. (1) C by a majority of not less than 75%.
 - c. In the case of a Special Resolution to amend the Articles of Associations Sections 1-5, a simple majority of 50% +1 if required of 75% of eligible voting members approved at the meeting in conjunction with any proxy or 'ballot' based voting.
- (2) who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:
 - (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member.
 - (b) The resolution is 'proposed' and 'seconded' by a member eligible to vote at a General Meeting.

(c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of no more than 28 days prior to notification of the General meeting and no less than 14 days before the stated meeting.

- (3) An 'amendment' to be written resolution may be submitted once the written resolution is published to members as long as it is received with 7 days before the stated General Meeting date. The amendment will be treated as a written resolution as defined in parts A and B in Article 11, and will be voted on, by a show of hands and/or by votes cast of those attending remotely.
 - a. If the amendment is approved, the entirety of the amended resolution shall be put to the General Meeting and voted upon in line with Article 23 (1).
- (4) A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.
- (5)
- (6) In the case of a member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement

Votes of members

24. Subject to Article 11, every member, whether an individual or an organisation, shall have one vote.
25. Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is changing the meeting shall be final.
26.
 - (1) Any organisation that is a member of the charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the charity
 - (2) The organisation must give written notice to the charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the charity. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the charity.
 - (3) Any notice given to the charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The charity shall not be required to consider whether that representative has been properly appointed by the organisation

Directors

27.
 - (1) A Director must be a natural person aged 16 years or older.
 - (2) No one may be appointed a Director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 39
 - (3) Eligibility of directors shall be determined by membership categories as defined under powers of Article 11.
 - (4) There shall be the provision for up to 3 'non-member' directors, known as 'external directors' to be appointed at the General Meeting alongside directors. These individuals will be put forward for consideration by recommendation of current Directors

28. The number of directors shall be not less than three and maximum of 12, inclusive of any 'External' directors appointed
29. The first Directors shall be those notified to Companies House as the first directors of the Charity.
30. A Director may not appoint an alternate or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Directors

Powers of directors

31.
 - (1) The Directors shall manage the business directly; through delegation to committee or employed individuals of the Charity, and may exercise all the powers of the Charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Act, the articles or any special resolution.
 - (2) Directors who hold 'Executive' roles, as outlined in Article 40, are charged with specific responsibility to ensure operational, financial and legal compliance of the Charity. Their powers are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Act, the articles, resolutions or special resolutions or resolutions passed by directors
 - (3) No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Directors
 - (4) Any meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Directors

Retirement of directors

32. At the first annual general meeting all the Directors must retire from office, unless by the close of the meeting the members have failed to elect sufficient Directors to hold a quorate meeting of the Directors. At each subsequent annual general directors appointed will serve a maximum of 3 years (36 months) before they must retire and are eligible to stand again. This will be known as a 'term of office'.
33. No limit is placed on the number of terms Directors may serve, though no Director shall serve more than three terms (whether consecutively or not) in any of the Executive roles, (which are defined elsewhere in the Articles) of which there is a maximum of two terms in one specific Executive role.
 - (1) The Directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any Directors became or were appointed Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
 - (2) (2) If a Director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of these articles the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting.

Appointment of directors

35. The charity may by ordinary resolution:
 - (a) appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director; and
 - (b) determine the rotation in which any additional directors are to retire.
36. Wherein the event that the number of nominations exceed the number of vacancies for Director positions, the Secretary will ensure correct voting procedures are enacted.
37. No person other than a director retiring by rotation may be appointed a director at any general meeting unless:

- (1) he or she is recommended for re-election by the directors, or
 - (2) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date of the meeting, the charity is given a notice that.
 - (a) is signed by a member entitled to vote at the meeting;
 - (b) states the member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a director;
 - (c) contains the details that, if the person were to be appointed, the charity would have to file at Companies House, and
 - (d) is signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his or her willingness to be appointed
37. All members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven no more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a Director other than a director who is to retire by rotation
- 38.
- (1) The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director who will serve as a director up until the next General Meeting where he/she must be appointed by vote.
 - (2) A Director appointed by a resolution of the Directors must retire at the next general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation
39. The appointment of a Director, whether by the Charity in a general meeting or by the other Directors, must not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of Directors.
40. The Directors will vote to appoint the following position, known as 'Executive Roles' from the existing directors.
- Chair
 - Vice-Chair
 - Treasurer
 - Secretary
41. The roles outlined in Article 40 shall be appointed within 30 calendar days preceding the General Meeting to which previous Directors whom occupied the role has resigned.
42. The appointment of the roles outlined in Article 40. The length of term is subject to:
- a. Duration remaining of the director's 'term' until resignation.
 - b. Duration stated by the nominee standing.
 - c. Duration approved by the Directors voting on appointment
43. The appointment of the 'Secretary' role may be undertaken by an individual who is not a Director or member of the Charity. The appointment will be approved by a vote of the Directors and confirmed by a vote at the next General Meeting.

Disqualification and removal of directors

44. A Director shall cease to hold office if he or she:
- (1) ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision in the Companies Act or is prohibited by law from being a director,
 - (2) is disqualified from acting as a Trustee by virtue of sections 178 and 179 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision),

- (3) ceases to be a member of the Charity, and not currently an appointed External Director.
- (4) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;
- (5) resigns as a Director by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
